2009 Chariot Riders Horse Show

Rules and Regulations

Every animal entered for the competition or that is on the show grounds shall be under the control of the Horse Show Committee, this Committee shall in no case be responsible or liable for any loss or damage to any animal, person, or property.

Proof of current negative coggins test must be shown at the secretary's stand. Current means as of September 2008.

The Horse Show Committee reserves the right to disqualify a horse and rider from the remainder of the show for reasons of discourtesy to the judge or officials on the part of the owner, trainer or groom. The rider will forfeit the entry fee.

All horses must be serviceably sound; disqualification for unsoundness is at the judge's discretion. In cases where a horse is entered and is not exhibited, the entry fee is forfeited, Will not be refunded.

Numbers will then be given to every entrant upon payment of all fees and must be correctly attached and displayed when entering the class. Six ribbons will be awarded in each class. Grand and reserve in each division and High Point rider of the day. Points are accumulated on horse and rider combination. The judges decision is final. No horse shall be allowed in the show ring except at such hours as announced. All riders leaving designated show areas must dismount at the gate and walk the horse. Please do not clean horse trailers in parking lot. Riders should have correct attire. Riders must have proper foot wear with a heel (work boots/muck boots are not acceptable). All riders, regardless of age or riding discipline must wear an ASTM-SEI approved safety helmet with a chinstrap fastened when mounted. This includes all schooling also.

No spectators in staging area. Handlers must have appropriate shoes on. No flip flops, sandals or open toed shoes.
